

Program Overview: Title I, Part A

Title I, Part A funds support educational opportunities for all schools and students in the Coahoma County School District. The funds provide instructional materials and instructional resources for students, teachers, and administrators. Funds are also used to provide two home-school liaison aides, and a portion of a bookkeeper, secretary, and director.