

Program Overview: Title VI

Title VI, is a Rural Education Achievement Program (REAP) is designed to support rural school districts in utilizing Federal resources more effectively to improve instructional quality and student academic achievement. The funds are used to fund a portion of a computer technician and for purchasing supplemental instructional materials that promote a healthy and drug free life-style for students.